

IEFA and Discovery Education Experience

Connecting today's generation with yesterday's past

Discovery Education is proud to partner with OPI Indian Education for All (IEFA) to offer high-quality educational resources that honor and preserve the cultural integrity of Montana's tribes. Explore the Montana Indian Education for All Channel in Discovery Education Experience!

- ☒ Log in to Discovery Education
- ☒ Search "IEFA" or "Indian Education for All" to find

Explore Montana's rich history with regularly updated content and lesson plans aligned to the IEFA framework, organized by grade band and subject. Here are just a few featured resources:

VIDEO SEGMENT

The Mountain Region: Montana

Examines Montana and its distinct geography, wildlife, and agriculture. The segment also...

Show more

PDF ACTIVITY

Tribal Territories in Montana

Presents a map of the Native territories in present-day Montana. The map includes tribe's land an...

Show more

FULL VIDEO

Need to Know: The Lewis and Clark Expedition

In the early 1800s, the United States of America almost doubled in size, and with that much new...

Show more

VIDEO SEGMENT

The Gold Rush and Native Americans

As California's Gold Rush waned, gold was found in Montana, South Dakota, and in the Southwest; th...

Show more

FULL VIDEO

Welcome to the Madison Buffalo Jump

Features Dr. Shane Doyle (Crow) talking about the history and sharing cultural information...

Show more

Contact Us

Allison Nys

Statewide Partnership Manager, MT | ANys@discoveryed.com

Learn More
DiscoveryEducation.com/learn/montana-partners